About the Author

Firstly, I am a Christian and the author of a previous book entitled, Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, Edition One, published on June 5, 2016. For more information about my education and personal life, please see the About the Author section of the previously written book cited above.

For authorship purposes, I use two pseudonyms for communicating to the public at large. The first is Babylon Man. I use that annotation since it is easy for people to remember, and I have a YouTube channel entitled BabylonManERC. The other name that I use -- when a more normal name seems to be required -- is Michael Ross.

I now live in the Philippines and have started a small entity called E.R.C. Communications. The E.R.C. stands for Eschatology Research Council. As the name suggests, the mission of E.R.C. Communications is to communicate the eschatological research that I and others have done in a way that is accessible to the public and to provide the public, particularly Christians, with good council on end-times affairs.

As a man who has studied the Word of God for over 30 years, it is my personal belief that the Bible is the most fascinating book on the planet. It is unquestionably accurate, God-inspired, and contains the Truth of salvation. Its prophecies in the past have all come true and is a great testimony to the faithfulness of God. As someone with an extreme love for the Bible, end-times prophecy has been my passion and fascination. I wish to excite other Christians about what I have found in the Word of God and to warn them of what I understand to be true concerning America's future.

Biblical prophecy is met with skepticism and doubt. People often become alarmed with prophetic discussion, and this is unfortunate. Although it is not my intent to alarm, how can one warn Christians without raising the alarm? Instead, the glorious return of our Lord is a promise that should give Christians much hope. It is my wish to excite this hope in your heart and to encourage you to be watchful of the times and to obey God's will no matter what the cost because our reward is with Him.

Preface

The book of Revelation opens with the words, "Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and heed the things which are written in it..." (Rev. 1:3, NASB). However, two full chapters concerning the future have been largely misunderstood and characteristically ignored, namely the judgment of Babylon the Great as described in chapters 17 and 18 of Revelation.

This booklet is an end-times update and an extension to several previous books written by the author, which are listed below.

- Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, Edition One is the main book, published June 5, 2016, comprising some 270 pages.
- 9/11 and 9/26: Days of Judgment, Edition One is a smaller book for concentration on the date of Elul 23rd of 2016. This book was published on September 25, 2016.

- The author's book entitled, October 18, 2016: Important or Not?, published on October 17, 2016, reasoned that the Day of Destruction (D-o-D) for Babylon the Great may fall on the Hebrew anniversary of the fall of the original Babylon. Thankfully, it did not.
- The most recent book of the author, Day of Destruction: Update 2016/2017, published on November 18, 2016, cautioned that Day of Destruction may occur on Nov. 18, 2016 as it was the initial day of Noah's Flood. Again, the author was thankfully incorrect in that possibility.

If the reader has not yet obtained a copy of these previously written books, he is encouraged to do so. This booklet assumes the reader is familiar with the contents of these two earlier books.

The purpose of this booklet is that of another quick, but important, update. Mankind is again nearing another date that may have ominous overtones. For more on which date that might be and the reasons behind the educated guess, please continue reading, prayerfully and considerately.

The author solemnly states that the date and time of publication for America's Final Day: Educated Guesses for the Predicted Day of Destruction – December 2016 Update by Michael Ross (pseudonym) with E.R.C. Communications is approximately:

Dec. 23, 2016 at 3 A.M., Washington, D.C. time

Dec. 23, 2016 at 10 A.M., Jerusalem time

Dec. 23, 2016 at 4 P.M., Manila / Hong Kong time

A Curtailed Synopsis of Babylon the Great

Babylon the Great is a subject about which very few Christians know anything and about which most priests and pastors try their very best to absolutely ignore. However, this important subject is the central theme of the previously written book of the author, Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, Edition One. As such, this text will not explore all of the details of why the author has identified America as Babylon the Great.

The major Biblical section on Babylon the Great, Revelation 17:1 - 19:10 is provided within this text. Regardless of whatever the author may write in this booklet, it is what God inspired John to write about Babylon the Great which is the essential, Holy Spirit-inspired prophecy that Christians should understand.

Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, with whom the kings of the earth committed acts of immorality, and those who dwell on the earth were made drunk with the wine of her immorality." And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness; and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. The woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a gold cup full of abominations and of the unclean things of her immorality, and on her forehead a name was written, a mystery, "Babylon the great, the mother of harlots and of the abominations of the earth." And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus.

When I saw her, I wondered greatly. And the angel said to me, "Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. "The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the abyss and go to destruction. And those who dwell on the earth, whose name has not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, will wonder when they see the beast, that he was and is not and will come. "Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits, and they are seven kings; five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a little while. "The beast which was and is not, is himself also an eighth and is one of the seven, and he goes to destruction. "The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour.

"These have one purpose, and they give their power and authority to the beast. "These will wage war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because He is Lord of lords and

King of kings, and those who are with Him are the called and chosen and faithful." And he said to me, "The waters which you saw where the harlot sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues.

"And the ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the harlot and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh and will burn her up with fire. "For God has put it in their hearts to execute His purpose by having a common purpose, and by giving their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God will be fulfilled.

"The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth." After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illumined with his glory. And he cried out with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! She has become a dwelling place of demons and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird. "For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the passion of her immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed acts of immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich by the wealth of her sensuality."

I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, so that you will not participate in her sins and receive of her plagues; for her sins have piled up as high as heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. "Pay her back even as she has paid, and give back to her double according to her deeds; in the cup which she has mixed, mix twice as much for her. "To the degree that she glorified herself and lived sensuously, to the same degree give her torment and mourning; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as a queen and I am not a widow, and will never see mourning.'

"For this reason in one day her plagues will come, pestilence and mourning and famine, and she will be burned up with fire; for the Lord God who judges her is strong.

"And the kings of the earth, who committed acts of immorality and lived sensuously with her, will weep and lament over her when they see the smoke of her burning, standing at a distance because of the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For in one hour your judgment has come.'

"And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargoes any more -- cargoes of gold and silver and precious stones and pearls and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet, and every kind of citron wood and every article of ivory and every article made from very costly wood and bronze and iron and marble, and cinnamon and spice and incense and perfume and frankincense and wine and olive oil and fine flour and wheat and cattle and sheep, and cargoes of horses and chariots and slaves and human lives. "The fruit you long for has gone from you, and all things that were luxurious and splendid have passed away from you and men will no longer find them.

"The merchants of these things, who became rich from her, will stand at a distance because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls; for in one hour such great wealth has been laid waste!' And every shipmaster and every passenger and sailor, and as many as make their living by the sea, stood at a distance, and were crying out as they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What city is like the great city?' 'And they threw dust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had ships at sea became rich by her wealth, for in one hour she has been laid waste!'

"Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you saints and apostles and prophets, because God has pronounced judgment for you against her." Then a strong angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "So will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down with violence, and will not be found any longer. "And the sound of harpists and musicians and flute-players and trumpeters will not be heard in you any longer; and no craftsman of any craft will be found in you any longer; and the sound of a mill will not be heard in you any longer; and the light of a lamp will not shine in you any longer; and the voice of the bridegroom and bride will not be heard in you any longer; for your merchants were the great men of the earth, because all the nations were deceived by your sorcery. "And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints and of all who have been slain on the earth."

After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God; because His judgments are true and righteous; for He has judged the great harlot who was corrupting the earth with her immorality, and He has avenged the blood of His bond-servants on her."

And a second time they said, "Hallelujah! Her smoke rises up forever and ever." And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne saying, "Amen. Hallelujah!" And a voice came from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our God, all you His bond-servants, you who fear Him, the small and the great." Then I heard something like the voice of a great multitude and like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns.

"Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come and His bride has made herself ready. It was given to her to clothe herself in fine linen, bright and clean; for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. Then he said to me, "Write, 'Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" And he said to me, "These are true words of God." Then I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "Do not do that; I am a fellow servant of yours and your brethren who hold the testimony of Jesus; worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy." (Rev. 17:1 - 19:10, NASB)

The Lord God calls upon His people to "come out of her." Notice that it is not simply advice; it is given in the form of a command. When to come out of Babylon then becomes the question.

Chapter 2

The Significance of the Year 2016

If America is indeed Babylon the Great of Revelation, when might be its ultimate Day of Destruction (D-o-D)? As improbable as it may seem, God has laid down clues, hints, or evidences for this D-o-D before it has been brought to bear. This is the biggest judgment of God since Noah's Flood.

That is, can one presume that such a day can be calculated, researched, and given an educated guess? For that, let the character of God be considered. The judgment of Babylon is an action that is preordained and set in the annals of Biblical prophecy. A warning time of over 1900 years precedes it. It is a judgment that is mentioned in the most graphic terms. The judgment takes up a significant portion of the practical end-times section of the book of Revelation. Consequently, the day of the execution of this judgment, D-o-D, should not be random. The fact that D-o-D is not an accident should be made obvious to all who seriously look at it.

It is the author's contention that the Lord has multiple purposes for the coming D-o-D. They are listed below.

1. The D-o-D will be used to punish Babylon the Great for its sins. "...for her sins have piled up as high as heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities." (Rev. 18:5, NASB)

2. The D-o-D will be used to shake the earth to remind a wicked and thoughtless generation of the holy name of the Most High. "And I shall send fire upon Magog and those who inhabit the coastlands in safety ; and they will know that I am the Lord. And My holy name I shall make known in the midst of My people Israel; and I shall not let My holy name be profaned anymore. And the nations will know that I am the Lord, the Holy One in Israel." (Ezek. 39:6-7, NASB)

3. The D-o-D will cause one third of the world to become destroyed by fire (e.g. a large nuclear exchange). "And the first [angel] sounded, and there came hail and fire, mixed with blood, and they were thrown to the earth; and a third of the earth was burned up, and all the green grass was burned up." (Rev. 8:7, NASB)

4. The D-o-D will cause world currencies to plummet and become unstable. "And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her [Babylon], because no one buys their cargoes anymore." (Rev. 18:11, NASB)

5. The economic collapse of the world will facilitate the speedy rise of the Beast because he will usher in hope and a new world order. He will have dictatorial powers but will seem to be just the person that is needed in this time of tremendous despair and chaos.

As seen above, D-o-D will change everything. Economically, psychologically, spiritually, emotionally, and physically, everything will suffer a significant and immediate change. This will be a day like none other. It is likely, therefore, to occur on a day appointed by God to show His power and His authority.

The author has shown in his previous writings that end-times events seem to be somewhat correlated recently with what he calls the days of Noah. The great flood mentioned in Genesis chapters 7 and 8 states that specific things happened on exact days as recorded by Noah. Among the Orthodox Jews, such as Chabad Jews, these dates are supposedly known. Researching how the Chabad Jews have calculated the days of Noah is beyond the scope of this discussion, but the days of Noah are listed below, according to the Hebrew calendar. The following has been taken from the website, chabad.org.

Cheshvan 17: Noah enters ark; rains begin.

Kislev 27: Forty days of rain end; begin 150 days of water's swelling and churning, during which the water reaches a height of 15 cubits above the mountain peaks.

Sivan 1: Water calms and begins to subside at the rate of one cubit every four days.

Sivan 17: The bottom of the ark, submerged 11 cubits beneath the surface, touches down on the top of Mount Ararat.

Av 1: The mountain peaks break the water's surface.

Elul 10: Forty days after the mountain peaks become visible, Noah opens the ark's window and dispatches a raven.

Elul 17: Noah sends the dove for the first time.

Elul 23: The dove is sent a second time, and returns with an olive leaf in its beak.

Tishrei 1: Dove's third mission. Water completely drained.

Cheshvan 27: Ground fully dried. Noah exits ark.

The author has discussed the significance of Elul 23rd much in his previous books, especially in the books, entitled Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, Edition One and 9/11 and 9/26: Days of Judgment, Edition One. It has been shown that America's hegemony over world powers could be attributed to the date of September 1, 1945, Washington D.C. time. On that evening in Washington D.C. in 1945, the Japanese emperor officially surrendered to America. America had officially been the primary victor of World War II and became the undisputed world power. It was also a Noah date, the date of Elul 23rd.

But there is another Noah date that is coming around the corner as this text is typed. It is a date that may pass by without any significance whatsoever. Or, God forbid, it may usher the world into the D-o-D and all of its calamities.

Before this date is entertained with any more speculation, let ground work be laid that explains the possible prophetic significance of the year 2016.

Blood Moons.

Four “Blood Moons” are four lunar eclipses that fall only on the holy feast days of the Old Testament (see the author's previous Babylon book for more explanation). This sequence of four blood moons is called a Holy Tetrad.

Analyzing the research of Mark Biltz, it is found that in the last 1000 years, something of major importance happens to the Jews within two years from the midpoint of the Holy Tetrad. That is, plus or minus two years from the midpoint of the four blood moons, an important event has always happened to the Jewish people in the last 1000 years.

In last 1000 years there have been only four Holy Tetrads. Each span of time is four years (2 + 2). This yields sixteen years in total. The chances of any year having being in this span of time is  $16/1000 = 1.6\%$ .

The year 2016 is such a year. The current Holy Tetrad of 2014-2015 has a midpoint in January, 2015. For this pattern of important Jewish-centered events to hold, it should be expected that something “big” will happen to the Jews prior to the end of the year, 2016.

D-o-D would certainly fit that category.

The 70 Years of Hegemony for Babylon is Over.

Ancient Babylon was given 70 years to be the hegemonic power. See Jeremiah 25:8-13. After that, its hegemony would be taken away, and it would fall.

In 609 B.C., Nebuchadnezzar killed the last Assyrian king and the hegemony of Babylon was established. In 539 B.C., some 70 years later, Babylon was overtaken suddenly by Cyrus the Great.

The historical parallel is that in September, 1945, America received the formal unconditional surrender of the Japanese Emperor. After 1945, America enjoyed world hegemony. Generally speaking, nations did what America said.

In September, 2015, America lost its hegemony. Why? The seventy years were completed. Think of China not listening to America on the South China Sea dispute, Iran not respecting the Iranian nuclear deal, Russia ignoring American requests regarding Syria, North Korea openly challenging America with nuclear weapon tests, and even Philippines, an ally, openly mocking its greatest supporter. Has America ever been so powerless? America's role as the world hegemonic power is not only being openly challenged, it is being reversed.

This is exactly what one would expect to see directly before the actual judgment with D-o-D.

The Japanese surrendered on Sept. 2, 1945 at 9:00 AM, Tokyo Bay. This was Sept. 1, 1945, 8:00 PM in Washington, D.C. Sept. 1, 1945 was Elul 23 for that year. This was on a special Hebrew year, a Shemitah year.

The 9/11 attacks on Sept. 11, 2001 in New York was on Elul 23. Elul 23 of 2001 was also a Shemitah year. In fact, it was exactly eight cycle of seven-year Shemitah's since the Japanese surrender date. That is, 9/11 happened  $8 \times 7 = 56$  years later.

9/11 was the first of a series of judgments. God was warning. Seven year later, another special Hebrew year of another Shemitah, in September of 2008, America had its worst financial crash since the Great Depression. The height of this period was the last two weeks of September, 2008. The midpoint of the last two weeks of September was Sept. 23, which was Elul 23.

God is getting ready to pounce (Jere. 51:25-26). The next Elul 23 on a special Hebrew year was seven years later on Sept. 7, 2015. No one noticed the significance. The Russians began to militarize Syria on Sept. 7, 2015. America told its allies (Bulgaria, Greece, Iraq) to deny air space rights. Unexpectedly, this went ignored. Russia now controls Syria.

Russia has Middle East hegemony now. America is no longer the undisputed hegemonic power. Russia and China are filling in the vacuum.

The Belshazzar Effect.

In the Old Testament, it is learned that Belshazzar was the last king of Babylon. This is true, but not fully. In actuality, Belshazzar was son of the real king who was still living. His name was Nabonidus.

King Nabonidus allowed his son, Belshazzar, to rule Babylon. In effect, there were two kings of Babylon, two heads of state, at the time of ancient Babylon's fall. It should be noticed that as of December 19, 2016, Donald Trump became the president-elect of the United States of America, by being officially elected by the Electoral College.

America now is in a similar position to that of ancient Babylon at the time of its sudden and unexpected fall. It has two heads of state. One is the official head, Barack Obama. The other is the one who is being heralded as America's newly found hope, Donald Trump.

Another interesting historical parallel is that King Nabonidus, the last official king of Babylon, was not fully Babylonian by blood. His bloodline was 50% Chaldean and 50% Syrian. The Syrian ethnicity came from his mother.

To the author, President Barack Hussein Obama embodies attributes of both Nabonidus and his son, Belshazzar. Like Belshazzar, Obama does not seem like a capable leader that is able to deal with a very capable adversary. For Belshazzar, his adversary was the Persian King, Cyrus the Great; for Obama, it is the Russian president, Vladimir Putin. Also like Nabonidus, Obama is not 100% of the ethnicity of the nation that he leads. Nabonidus was only 50% Chaldean. Obama is only 50% American, having the other 50% of his ethnicity tied to the foreign nation of Kenya via his Kenyan father. (As an aside, a recent press conference in December of 2016 by Sheriff Joe Arapaio laid more eye-opening evidence of the forgery of Obama's birth certificate, a strong indication that he was probably born outside of the United States.)

Is it again only a coincidence that the last king of Babylon was only 50% Babylonian (since Chaldean was the main bloodline of the Babylonians) and that what might be the last president of the United States, Obama, is a man that is actually only 50% American by blood?

Is it a coincidence that the name of Trump is akin to that of the word, trumpet, an instrument blaring the sound of war?

The name of Trump and the character and ethnicity of Obama seem to signify end-times realities which most analysts miss.

The Number 17 x 17.

The number  $17 \times 17$  is not a normal number. This number, seventeen squared, works out to be 289. Why so interesting? Well, there are exactly 289 days between September 7, 2015 (Elul 23rd) and June 23, 2016 (the date of the legalization of homosexual marriage).

If the year 2016 is to be such an important year for America -- quite possibly its terminal year -- what of the year of  $2016 - 289 = 1727$ ?

In 1727 A.D., America was a string of English colonies run by English colonists who were under the ultimate lordship of the King of England. Knowing that God uses earthquakes to show

His power and as a sign to those who pay attention, it is interesting that there was an earthquake on that year.

It was not the normal earthquake. It can be noted that earthquakes are a sign of God's power and judgment. This was the first earthquake that the early Americans ever experienced which caused serious damage and was estimated to be a magnitude 7 earthquake by the U.S. Geological Survey (referenced at http://earthquake.usgs.gov/earthquakes/states/events/1727\_11\_10.php). It was termed the Great Earthquake of 1727 by Rev. Nathaniel Gookin, a preacher in the town of Hampton, New Hampshire.

A part of his description of the earthquake reads, “The shake was very hard, and was attended with a terrible noise, something like thunder. The houses trembled as if they were falling; divers chimneys were cracked and some had their tops broken off. [...] The sea was observed to roar in an unusual manner. The earth broke open ... and cast up a very fine bluish sand.” This quotation was referenced at the Lane Memorial Library website (<http://www.hampton.lib.nh.us/hampton/history/storms/earthquake.htm>).

It should be understood that the Great Earthquake of 1727 was the first major earthquake that the English colonists in the American colonies ever witnessed. Notice that adding 289 years to 1727 yields the year 2016. Could 289 years be the interval of time between the first and last great earthquakes to strike America (assuming Day of Destruction will include earthquakes)?

A History of Seven's for New York City.

New York (the city, not New York state) has an interesting history. It was one of the first major cities of the American colonies, was the place of the first capital of the U.S.A., was the target of the 9/11 attacks which took place on Elul 23rd, and is probably the most famous city of America. What happens to New York has significance. (The following information is taken primarily from two sources. They are: Almanac of American Military History, Volume 1, Spencer Tucker, Publisher ABC-CLIO, 2012. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/New\_Amsterdam.)

In May of 1624, the first settlers from Holland arrived in what they called New Netherland (someday to become New York City). Under the command of Cornelius May, some thirty families arrived for the purpose of establishing legal possession of this territory under the authority of Dutch West India Company. Thus, began the long and celebrated history of New York. The Dutch later called their small city, New Amsterdam.

Following various skirmishes with the English, New Amsterdam was lost to the Dutch and was renamed as New York City by the English in the year 1664.

The Dutch retook New York in the August of 1673. Some 600 Dutch soldiers under Captain Anthony Colve came ashore and attacked Fort James in New York City. Captain John Manning of the English surrendered the fort. As such, New York City was officially attacked and defeated in 1673.

An analysis of these dates is striking.

Year 1624: The area of what would be New York is established by the Dutch.

Year 1664: New York is taken over by the English.

Year 1673: New York is attacked and defeated by a foreign power.

If it might be assumed that 2016 is to be the year that America, including New York, is attacked and defeated by a foreign power on the D-o-D, then a multiple of seven's becomes interesting. Adding  $7 \times 7 \times 7 = 343$  years to the last time that New York was attacked and defeated by a foreign power, i.e. 1673, yields the year 2016. This sequence of seven's involving the history of

New York, especially if D-o-D really happens this year, cannot be seen as purely random. In the author's opinion, God is showing His sovereignty over the affairs of the American nation yet again.

Hillary Clinton.

As the wife of former President Bill Clinton, as the former senator from New York, as the former Secretary of State, and as a former candidate for president of the United States in both 2008 and 2016, Hillary Clinton is a well known name in American politics.

She is a woman who is known to be a strong supporter of homosexual rights, feminism, abortion rights, etc. In fact, as a supporter of abortion, in a recent presidential debate, she advocated for the killing of unborn children in the ninth month of pregnancy via a procedure popularly called partial-birth abortion.

Needless to say, she is not a Christian of any measure. In fact, she may be seen as a metaphorical personification of the harlot of Babylon the Great. Indeed, a day after her election defeat in November, 2016, Hillary Clinton, along with her husband, both wore purple for her concession speech. It is interesting that the harlot of Babylon is also clothed in purple in the book of ## Revelation.

And the woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a gold cup full of abominations and of the unclean things of her immorality. (Rev. 17:4, NASB)

Well, this purplishly robed woman of Babylon fell on the anniversary of the attacks on 9/11. On a beautiful day in New York City on September 11, 2016, Hillary Clinton was caught on camera collapsing and being dragged into her awaiting automobile by her security guards and attendants. She said that she suddenly felt all of the energy leaving her body. Never before was Hillary Clinton ever caught on camera collapsing like that. That she collapsed on the same day as the collapsing towers on 9/11 is a sign that America's fateful day is quickly approaching.

The collapse of the personification of the harlot of Bablon did not occur in 2008 or in 2012. It occurred in 2016. This may be another sign that 2016 is a very important and fateful year for America.

Noah's Flood and the Day of Destruction

The fall of Babylon the Great is an event that is marked out in time in the pages of the Word of God, the Bible. The fact that it will be an event that is similar to the destruction caused by Noah's Flood should tie it in with that event.

The date of maximum death for Noah's Flood can be seen as the date when the waters reached their maximum height. When the rain first ceased to fall, the flood waters began their slow descent downward. It is then that the height was the highest. The day is marked out on the timeline of Noah's Flood as the 27th of Kislev.

Since the 27th of Kislev is not only a day of Noah but also is a day symbolizing maximum destruction and death, it could be argued that it has significance above all other dates in the Noah timeline.

Kislev 27th for the year 2016 is the 27th of December. Will D-o-D happen on December 27, 2016? Of course, there are no strong signs of this in today's world as of the writing of this text. No one is rushing to the stores to hoard gold, food, or water, and yet, in the mind of the author, it should be that way. He expects no signs.

Babylon the Great fell on a day without too much suspense. There were no warning signs. It fell in the middle of Belshazzar's party, his feast, commemorated for all time in paintings and folklore.

The fall of the modern Babylon, the U.S.A., is likely to be just as sudden and just as unexpected.

Another sign that is of interest is that there are exactly 7 x 7 number of days between the presidential election day of November 8, 2016 and Kislev 27th, December 27, 2016.

But this is not the only sign. Exactly 70 years ago, Kislev 27th was Dec. 20, 1946. On that date, Japan was hit with a magnitude 8 earthquake resulting in over one thousand deaths.

Yet another sign is something that Putin of Russia said one year ago on the 27th of Kislev for the year 2015. On Dec. 9, 2015, in a meeting in Moscow with cameras rolling, Putin made a veiled threat of the possibility of the use of nuclear weapons in the Syrian conflict. The following excerpt provides Putin's comments made in a discussion with his Defence Minister, Sergei Shoigu.

From RT news (Dec. 9, 2015, 7 A.M., Moscow time), " 'We must analyze everything happening on the battlefield, how the weapons operate. The Kalibrs (sea based cruise missiles) and KH-101 (airborne cruise missile) have proved to be modern and highly effective, and now we know it for sure - precision weapons that can be equipped with both conventional and special warheads, which are nuclear,' Putin said. 'Naturally, this is not necessary when fighting terrorists and, I hope, will never be needed,' the president added."

As such, there are many signals from ancient historical parallels, sequences of factors of seven, events involving world leaders, and other anomalies which may suggest that December 27 of 2016 will witness a nuclear war between Russia and America.

Should such a Day of Destruction occur, the town of Azaz in northern Syria may play a prominent role as other books written previously by the author suggest.

The reader is strongly encouraged to read the previously written books of the author to get the full understanding of how Biblical prophecy is being applied in our generation in the most powerful of ways.

Chapter 4

Thoughts about the Day of Destruction

It should go without saying that no one in their right mind should ever look forward to 1/3 of the earth becoming destroyed by fire. There are many good Americans and Russians living within their respective countries that do not deserve to die, should not die, but will die. My parents and sister are included among them.

What should a Christian do? Should a Christian ignore the warnings that America is Babylon the Great and that they should flee? The author's opinion is an emphatic NO! Christians throughout the world should understand that they are living in the end times, there is no pre-Tribulation “rapture” escape mechanism, and times are going to get tough.

Will D-o-D really happen on Dec. 27, 2016, the same day as the date of this publication? No one knows. But if it does, there were many, many signs that have already marked it out.

This book will answer: Are we really living in the last generation before the Return of Christ? Is America fulfilling the prophecies about Babylon the Great? Can the Hebrew calendar provide more insight into dating possibilities for the predicted D-o-D?

9/11 and 9/26: Days of Judgment, Edition One is a smaller book for concentration on the date of Elul 23rd of 2016. This book was published on Sept. 25, 2016.

October 18, 2016: Important or Not?, published on Oct. 17, 2016, reasoned that the D-o-D may fall on the Hebrew anniversary of the original Babylon.

Day of Destruction: Update 2016/2017, published on Nov. 18, 2016, cautioned that D-o-D may occur on Nov. the initial day of Noah's Flood.

This book highlights the date of December 27, 2016 and explains ...

1. America is Babylon the Great as recorded in the book of Revelation.
2. God will soon punish America with the worst judgment since Noah's Flood.
3. December 27, 2016 has many of the signs that could suggest America's Day of Destruction.

The author, Michael Ross, also lovingly called Babylon Man, has studied the prophetic Scriptures for over 30 years.

After authoring multiple international articles in the engineering sciences, he now turns his attention to something of greater importance, the coming judgment of America, with a focus on the date of December 27, 2016, given as another possibility for the Day of Destruction that
