In Dedication to my Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, and to my family
(my father, my mother, and my sister)
still living in Babylon.

About the Author

Firstly, I am a Christian and the author of a previous book entitled, Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, Edition One, published on June 5, 2016. For more information about my education and personal life, please see the About the Author section of the previously written book cited above.

For authorship purposes, I use two pseudonyms for communicating to the public at large. The first is Babylon Man. I use that annotation since it is easy for people to remember, and I have a YouTube channel and a Facebook page entitled BabylonManERC. The other name that I use -- when a more normal name seems to be required -- is Michael Ross.

I now live in the Philippines and have started a small entity called E.R.C. Communications. The E.R.C. stands for Eschatology Research Council. As the name suggests, the mission of E.R.C. Communications is to communicate the eschatological research that I and others have done in a way that is accessible to the public and to provide the public, particularly Christians, with good council on end-times affairs.

As a man who has studied the Word of God for over 30 years, it is my personal belief that the Bible is the most fascinating book on the planet. It is unquestionably accurate, God-inspired, and contains the Truth of salvation. Its prophecies in the past have all come true and is a great testimony to the faithfulness of God. As someone with an extreme love for the Bible, end-times prophecy has been my passion and fascination. I wish to excite other Christians about what I have found in the Word of God and to warn them of what I understand to be true concerning America's future.

Biblical prophecy is met with skepticism and doubt. People often become alarmed with prophetic discussion, and this is unfortunate. Although it is not my intent to alarm, how can one warn Christians without raising the alarm? Instead, the glorious return of our Lord is a promise that should give Christians much hope. It is my wish to excite this hope in your heart and to encourage you to be watchful of the times and to obey God's will no matter what the cost because our reward is with Him.

Preface

The book of Revelation opens with the words, "Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and heed the things which are written in it..." (Rev. 1:3, NASB). However, two full chapters concerning the future have been largely misunderstood and characteristically ignored, namely the judgment of Babylon the Great as described in chapters 17 and 18 of Revelation.

This booklet is an end-times update and an extension to three previous books written by the author. Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, Edition One is his main book, published June 5, 2016. The subsequent book published on September 25, 2016 entitled, 9/11 and 9/26: Days of Judgment, Edition One, is a smaller book for concentration on the date of Elul 23rd of 2016. The third book published on October 17, 2016 entitled, October 18, 2016: Important or Not?, reasoned that the Day of Destruction (D-o-D) for Babylon the Great may fall on the Hebrew anniversary of the fall of the original Babylon. Thankfully, it did not.

If the reader has not yet obtained a copy of these previously written books, he is encouraged to do so. This booklet assumes the reader is familiar with the contents of these two earlier books.

The purpose of this booklet is a quick, but important, update.

The author solemnly states that the date and time of publication for Day of Destruction: Update 2016/2017 by Michael Ross (pseudonym) with E.R.C. Communications is approximately:

Nov. 18, 2016 at 3 A.M., Washington, D.C. time

Nov. 18, 2016 at 10 A.M., Jerusalem time

Nov. 18, 2016 at 4 P.M., Manila / Hong Kong time

Chapter 1

A Curtailed Synopsis of Babylon the Great

Babylon the Great is a subject about which very few Christians know anything and about which most priests and pastors try their very best to absolutely ignore. However, this important subject is the central theme of the previously written book of the author, Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, Edition One. As such, this text will not explore all of the details of why the author has identified America as Babylon the Great.

The major Biblical section on Babylon the Great, Revelation 17:1 - 19:10 is provided within this text. Regardless of whatever the author may write in this booklet, it is what God inspired John to write about Babylon the Great which is the essential, Holy Spirit-inspired prophecy that Christians should understand.

Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here,

I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, with whom the kings of the earth committed acts of immorality, and those who dwell on the earth were made drunk with the wine of her immorality." And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness; and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. The woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a gold cup full of abominations and of the unclean things of her immorality, and on her forehead a name was written, a mystery, "Babylon the great, the mother of harlots and of the abominations of the earth." And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus.

When I saw her, I wondered greatly. And the angel said to me, "Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. "The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the abyss and go to destruction. And those who dwell on the earth, whose name has not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, will wonder when they see the beast, that he was and is not and will come. "Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits, and they are seven kings; five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a little while. "The beast which was and is not, is himself also an eighth and is one of the seven, and he goes to destruction. "The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour.

"These have one purpose, and they give their power and authority to the beast. "These will wage war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those who are with Him are the called and chosen and faithful." And he said to me, "The waters which you saw where the harlot sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues.

"And the ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the harlot and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh and will burn her up with fire. "For God has put it in their hearts to execute His purpose by having a common purpose, and by giving their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God will be fulfilled.

"The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth." After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illumined with his glory. And he cried out with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! She has become a dwelling place of demons and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird. "For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the passion of her immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed acts of immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich by the wealth of her sensuality."

I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, so that you will not participate in her sins and receive of her plagues; for her sins have piled up as high as heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. "Pay her back even as she has paid, and give back to her double according to her deeds; in the cup which she has mixed, mix twice as much for her. "To the degree that she glorified herself and lived sensuously, to the same degree give her torment and mourning; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as a queen and I am not a widow, and will never see mourning.'

"For this reason in one day her plagues will come, pestilence and mourning and famine, and she will be burned up with fire; for the Lord God who judges her is strong.

"And the kings of the earth, who committed acts of immorality and lived sensuously with her, will weep and lament over her when they see the smoke of her burning, standing at a distance because of the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For in one hour your judgment has come.'

"And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargoes any more -- cargoes of gold and silver and precious stones and pearls and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet, and every kind of citron wood and every article of ivory and every article made from very costly wood and bronze and iron and marble, and cinnamon and spice and incense and perfume and frankincense and wine and olive oil and fine flour and wheat and cattle and sheep, and cargoes of horses and chariots and slaves and human lives. "The fruit you long for has gone from you, and all things that were luxurious and splendid have passed away from you and men will no longer find them.

"The merchants of these things, who became rich from her, will stand at a distance because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls; for in one hour such great wealth has been laid waste!' And every shipmaster and every passenger and sailor, and as many as make their living by the sea, stood at a distance, and were crying out as they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What city is like the great city?' "And they threw dust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had ships at sea became rich by her wealth, for in one hour she has been laid waste!'

"Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you saints and apostles and prophets, because God has pronounced judgment for you against her." Then a strong angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "So will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down with violence, and will not be found any longer. "And the sound of harpists and musicians and flute-players and trumpeters will not be heard in you any longer; and no craftsman of any craft will be found in you any longer; and the sound of a mill will not be heard in you any longer; and the light of a lamp will not shine in you any longer; and the voice of the bridegroom and bride will not be heard in you any longer; for your merchants were the great men of the earth, because all the nations were deceived by your sorcery. "And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints and of all who have been slain on the earth."

After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God; because His judgments are true and righteous; for He has judged the great harlot who was corrupting the earth with her immorality, and He has avenged the blood of His bond-servants on her."

And a second time they said, "Hallelujah! Her smoke rises up forever and ever." And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne saying, "Amen. Hallelujah!" And a voice came from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our God, all you His bond-servants, you who fear Him, the small and the great." Then I heard something like the voice of a great multitude and like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns.

"Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come and His bride has made herself ready. It was given to her to clothe herself in fine linen, bright and clean; for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. Then he said to me, "Write, 'Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" And he said to me, "These are true words of God." Then I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "Do not do that; I am a fellow servant of yours and your brethren who hold the testimony of Jesus; worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy." (Rev. 17:1 - 19:10, NASB)

The Lord God calls upon His people to "come out of her." Notice that it is not simply advice; it is given in the form of a command. When to come out of Babylon then becomes the question. This text tries to elucidate a certain date of profound interest, the date of October 18, 2016.

Chapter 2

The Probable Significance of Elul 23rd for 2016

If one must leave Babylon, how soon is this Day of Destruction (D-o-D) going to happen? As improbable as it may seem, God has laid down clues, hints, or evidences for this D-o-D before it has been brought to bear. This is the biggest judgment of God since Noah's Flood.

In the book entitled, 9/11 and 9/26: Days of Judgment, the author presupposed that the date of September 26, 2016 could be the Day of Destruction of Babylon the Great. It was not. But there were many reasons to assume it might have been. The main reason is that the Gentile date of Sept. 26, 2016 is the Hebrew date of Elul 23. This date has been shown to be a date of judgment for America. In the years 2001, 2008, and 2015, important events happened which were auspicious in nature, harbingers (as Jonathan Cahn would say it) of God's judgment.

In the 9/11 and 9/26 book, it is shown that the overall chances of the Elul 23rd phenomenon being purely by accident (random coincidence) is one in (2100)(80)(2100) or 1 in 350 million.

That a pattern has emerged statistically suggesting implied relevance to the date of Elul 23rd and might also be pointing to the approaching D-o-D is very convincing, at least to the author. So, why was September 26, 2016 not D-o-D? Did something go wrong?

If God has, indeed, placed Elul 23rd as a kind of prophetic warning regarding the destruction of Babylon the Great, could it be that He placed the warning ahead of the actual destruction? Here, we will look at two examples.

If you were in a plane and the left engine began to quietly fail, you might not notice that the plane was in danger. However, the warning signs -- both visible and audible -- would be going off in the cockpit for the pilots to see and hear. The plane has not crashed yet. It might not crash for more than an hour, but it was at this time that plane was in real trouble. Before that time, the plane could be said to be safe. After that time, the plane was still flying, but its safety was surely in doubt.

It is the author's opinion that the latest Elul 23rd is exactly like that. The great plane of America is still flying but, unnoticed to most of the public, a fatal accident has already happened. This time, it is not an accident. It is the judgment of the Almighty.

In another example, one might consider the situation of a nearby cliff. You are walking directly towards the cliff. You see sign after sign warning you that a cliff lies straight ahead. Where are those signs posted? Are they at the actual edge of the cliff where you would actually fall down to your death? No, they are placed at intervals before the cliff is even visible to warn you of the approaching danger. The following is an illustration.

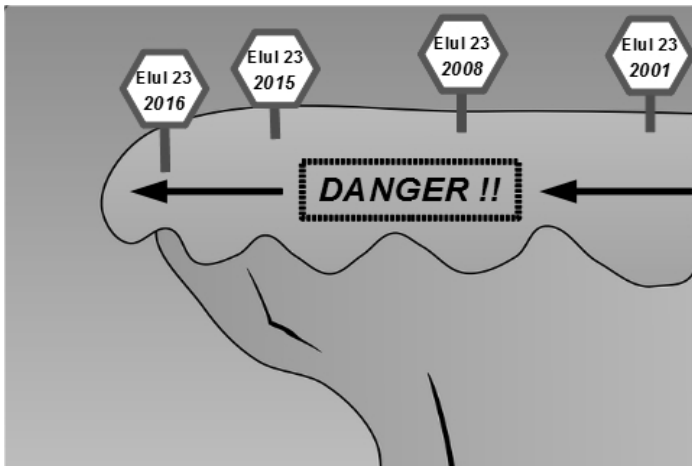

Illustration of the various dates of Elul 23rd being a warning of the approaching danger for the Day of Destruction.

If the last Elul 23rd was not D-o-D, then what might it be pointing to? Did anything happen around this date? The following section illustrates that important developments did occur around the vicinity of this date that point to trouble.

Significant Changes of Trajectory around Elul 23rd of 2016

Using newspaper headlines (sometimes shortened), a timeline can be created regarding the events of a week before and a week after this latest Elul 23. This corresponds to a week before and after Sept. 26, 2016.

- 10/3 "U.S. suspends Syria ceasefire talks with Russia, blames Moscow"; Reuters (Reuters.com).

What should be noticed in the cited news articles given above is that as late as September 21st, there was hope for peaceful talks between Russia and the United States. However, as Elul 23rd approached (i.e. Sept. 26th), heated arguments between Russia and the U.S. got even uglier. By Sept. 25th, one day before Elul 23rd, America had accused Russia of “barbarism” in a public display of hostility at the United Nations in New York. By Sept. 27th, the Russians were starting to think of nuclear options, and by Oct. 3rd, all peaceful talks with Russia were considered to be over by the United States.

Does any of this sound good? Certainly it is very depressing if you realize that nuclear war is not only a possibility in the future, it is actually predicted in the pages of Holy Scripture.

The point to be made, nonetheless, is that Elul 23rd is a date that is positioned very much in the vicinity of rising tensions between America and Russia. This is most probably not an accident.

Chapter 3

Noah's Flood and the Day of Destruction

The fall of Babylon the Great is an event that is marked out in time in the pages of the Word of God, the Bible. What is said in Revelation chapters 17 and 18 echo through the centuries to a time that is now, today.

Today, it is November 18, 2016. It will be approximately 4:00 PM in the Philippines when this book is uploaded as an e-book to Smashwords.com. The book will also be sent as a PDF file on a CD to the post office box of Michael Ross in Valencia, Philippines. The letter will be registered, so as to provide proof of date.

Why does the author believe that November 18, 2016 could be the Day of Destruction? Well, firstly, let it be clarified what is the Day of Destruction? The D-o-D will be a nuclear war initiated by the Beast (most likely, Putin) on Babylon the Great. America has already been identified by the author as Babylon the Great in his prievous works. This is what the author tries over and over to warn about. Very few are paying attention.

So, what is significant about November 18, 2016? This is the Hebrew date of Noah's flood. And this date is also following approximately seven weeks since Elul 23rd. The Hebrew date of today, Nov. 18, 2016 is 17th of Cheshvan of the year 5777.

According to the website chabad.org, a Jewish organization of an Orthodox sect of Jews:

Great Flood Begins (2105 BCE)

The rains began to fall on the 17th of Cheshvan of the year 1656 from creation (2105), flooding the earth and rising above the highest mountains. Only Noah and his family survived, in the ark built to that end by Divine command, and a pair of each animal species, who entered with him into the ark.

The following is a chronology of the Flood, as indicated by the dates and time periods given in the Torah's account and calculated by Rashi:

Other things of interest surrounding this week are:

- the largest supermoon in approximately 70 years (the last supermoon this large occurred around the time of the founding of Israel in 1948),

- the Hebrew date for the birthday of Hillary Clinton,
- the Chabad Jews read about the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah by fire earlier in this week,
- Donald Trump has just been elected President of the United States (it is interesting that trumpets, “trump,” connote judgment in the Bible), and
- the town of Azaz in Syria is now experiencing increased military activity (in Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, the author suggested that Azaz may well play a prophetic role such as a tactical nuclear bomb to stop a Turkish invasion of Syria through Azaz), among others.

The author believes, however, that it is more likely that something significant may happen on this date of November 18, 2016, but it will lead into D-o-D but not be the D-o-D.

Another possible date for D-o-D is December 27, 2016. But that will be the subject for future writings.

Chapter 4

Overall Thoughts about Day of Destruction

It should go without saying that no one in their right mind should ever look forward to 1/3 of the earth becoming destroyed by fire. There are many good Americans and Russians living within their respective countries that do not deserve to die, should not die, but will die. My parents and sister are included among them.

What should a Christian do? Should a Christian ignore the warnings that America is Babylon the Great and that they should flee? The author's opinion is an emphatic NO! Christians throughout the world should understand that they are living in the end times, there is no pre-Tribulation “rapture” escape mechanism, and times are going to get tough.

Will D-o-D really happen on Nov. 18, 2016, the same day as the date of this publication? No one knows. But if it does, there were many, many signs that have already marked it out.

- 1. America is Babylon the Great as recorded in the book of Revelation.
- 2. God will soon punish America with the worst judgment since Noah's Flood.
- 3. November 18, 2016 has many of the signs that could suggest America's Day of Destruction.

The author, Michael Ross, also lovingly called Babylon Man, has studied the prophetic Scriptures for over 30 years.

After authoring multiple international articles in the engineering sciences, he now turns his attention to something of greater importance, the coming judgment of America, with a focus on the date of November 18, 2016, given as another possibility for the Day of Destruction that is approaching.
