About the Author

Firstly, I am a Christian and the author of a previous book entitled, Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, Edition One, published on June 5, 2016. For more information about my education and personal life, please see the About the Author section of the previously written book cited above.

For authorship purposes, I use two pseudonyms for communicating to the public at large. The first is Babylon Man. I use that annotation since it is easy for people to remember, and I have a YouTube channel entitled BabylonManERC. The other name that I use -- when a more normal name seems to be required -- is Michael Ross.

I now live in the Philippines and have started a small entity called E.R.C. Communications. The E.R.C. stands for Eschatology Research Council. As the name suggests, the mission of E.R.C. Communications is to communicate the eschatological research that I and others have done in a way that is accessible to the public and to provide the public, particularly Christians, with good council on end-times affairs.

As a man who has studied the Word of God for over 30 years, it is my personal belief that the Bible is the most fascinating book on the planet. It is unquestionably accurate, God-inspired, and contains the Truth of salvation. Its prophecies in the past have all come true and is a great testimony to the faithfulness of God. As someone with an extreme love for the Bible, end-times prophecy has been my passion and fascination. I wish to excite other Christians about what I have found in the Word of God and to warn them of what I understand to be true concerning America's future.

Biblical prophecy is met with skepticism and doubt. People often become alarmed with prophetic discussion, and this is unfortunate. Although it is not my intent to alarm, how can one warn Christians without raising the alarm? Instead, the glorious return of our Lord is a promise that should give Christians much hope. It is my wish to excite this hope in your heart and to encourage you to be watchful of the times and to obey God's will no matter what the cost because our reward is with Him.

Preface

The book of Revelation opens with the words, "Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and heed the things which are written in it..." (Rev. 1:3, NASB). However, two full chapters concerning the future have been largely misunderstood and characteristically ignored, namely the judgment of Babylon the Great as described in chapters 17 and 18 of Revelation.

This booklet is an end-times update and an extension to several previous books written by the author, which are listed below.

- Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, Edition One is the main book, published June 5, 2016, comprising some 270 pages.
- 9/11 and 9/26: Days of Judgment, Edition One is a smaller book for concentration on the date of Elul 23rd of 2016. This book was published on September 25, 2016.

- The author's book entitled, October 18, 2016: Important or Not?, published on October 17, 2016, reasoned that the Day of Destruction (D-o-D) for Babylon the Great may fall on the Hebrew anniversary of the fall of the original Babylon. Thankfully, it did not.
- Another recent book of the author, Day of Destruction: Update 2016/2017, published on November 18, 2016, cautioned that Day of Destruction may occur on Nov. 18, 2016 as it was the initial day of Noah's Flood. Again, the author was thankfully incorrect in that possibility.
- In the book, Babylon Eclipsed, published on Sept 13, 2017, the author highlights the probable prophetic significance of the solar eclipse which occurred in America in August of 2017. In this most recent book, the time period between September 14 and September 23 was examined closely, especially as it related to North Korea.
- The most recent book, previous to this book, entitled, Babylon and North Korea, showed the possible significance of the 16th of Tishrei or October 6 of the year 2017. Nothing very serious of end-times importance with regards to North Korea has happened yet, but the tension keeps rising.

- Babylon and North Korea: Fall 2017 Update gave an educated guess for a North Korean emergency as the date of the beginning of Noah's Flood, Cheshvan 17th of the Hebrew calendar (November 6th for the year 2017). Again, the author guess was to be premature.

If the reader has not yet obtained a copy of these previously written books, he is encouraged to do so. This booklet assumes the reader is familiar with the contents of the earlier books.

The purpose of this booklet is that of another quick, but important, update. It will list all of the possible Noah dates that this North Korean crisis may come to a head. Indeed, it may occur within 24 hours of the publication of this book on Smashwords.com.

Mankind is again nearing another date that may have ominous overtones. For more on which date that might be and the reasons behind the educated guess, please continue reading, prayerfully and considerately.

The author solemnly states that the date and time of publication for Babylon and North Korea: Winter 2017 Update by Michael Ross (pseudonym) with E.R.C. Communications is approximately:

Dec. 14, 2017 at 11 PM, Los Angeles time

Dec. 15, 2017 at 9 A.M., Jerusalem time

Dec. 15, 2017 at 3 P.M., Manila/Hong Kong time

Chapter 1

A Curtailed Synopsis of Babylon the Great

Babylon the Great is a subject about which very few Christians know anything and about which most priests and pastors try their very best to absolutely ignore. However, this important subject is the central theme of the previously written book of the author, Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, Edition One. As such, this text will not explore all of the details of why the author has identified America as Babylon the Great.

The major Biblical section on Babylon the Great, Revelation 17:1 - 19:10 is provided within this text. Regardless of whatever the author may write in this booklet, it is what God inspired John to write about Babylon the Great which is the essential, Holy Spirit-inspired prophecy that Christians should understand.

Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here, I will show you the judgment of the great harlot who sits on many waters, with whom the kings of the earth committed acts of immorality, and those who dwell on the earth were made drunk with the wine of her immorality." And he carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness; and I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns. The woman was clothed in purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a gold cup full of abominations and of the unclean things of her immorality, and on her forehead a name was written, a mystery, "Babylon the great, the mother of harlots and of the abominations of the earth." And I saw the woman drunk with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the witnesses of Jesus.

When I saw her, I wondered greatly. And the angel said to me, "Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns. "The beast that you saw was, and is not, and is about to come up out of the abyss and go to destruction. And those who dwell on the earth, whose name has not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, will wonder when they see the beast, that he was and is not and will come. "Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains on which the woman sits, and they are seven kings; five have fallen, one is, the other has not yet come; and when he comes, he must remain a little while. "The beast which was and is not, is himself also an eighth and is one of the seven, and he goes to destruction. "The ten horns which you saw are ten kings who have not yet received a kingdom, but they receive authority as kings with the beast for one hour.

"These have one purpose, and they give their power and authority to the beast. "These will wage war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because He is Lord of lords and King of kings, and those who are with Him are the called and chosen and faithful." And he said to me, "The waters which you saw where the harlot sits, are peoples and multitudes and nations and tongues.

"And the ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the harlot and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh and will burn her up with fire. "For God has put it in their hearts to execute His purpose by having a common purpose, and by giving their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God will be fulfilled.

"The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth." After these things I saw another angel coming down from heaven, having great authority, and the earth was illumined with his glory. And he cried out with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great! She has become a dwelling place of demons and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird. "For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the passion of her immorality, and the kings of the earth have committed acts of immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich by the wealth of her sensuality."

I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come out of her, my people, so that you will not participate in her sins and receive of her plagues; for her sins have piled up as high as heaven, and God has remembered her iniquities. "Pay her back even as she has paid, and give back to her double according to her deeds; in the cup which she has mixed, mix twice as much for her. "To the degree that she glorified herself and lived sensuously, to the same degree give her torment and mourning; for she says in her heart, 'I sit as a queen and I am not a widow, and will never see mourning.'

"For this reason in one day her plagues will come, pestilence and mourning and famine, and she will be burned up with fire; for the Lord God who judges her is strong.

"And the kings of the earth, who committed acts of immorality and lived sensuously with her, will weep and lament over her when they see the smoke of her burning, standing at a distance because of the fear of her torment, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For in one hour your judgment has come.'

"And the merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargoes any more -- cargoes of gold and silver and precious stones and pearls and fine linen and purple and silk and scarlet, and every kind of citron wood and every article of ivory and every article made from very costly wood and bronze and iron and marble, and cinnamon and spice and incense and perfume and frankincense and wine and olive oil and fine flour and wheat and cattle and sheep, and cargoes of horses and chariots and slaves and human lives. "The fruit you long for has gone from you, and all things that were luxurious and splendid have passed away from you and men will no longer find them.

"The merchants of these things, who became rich from her, will stand at a distance because of the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, she who was clothed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and adorned with gold and precious stones and pearls; for in one hour such great wealth has been laid waste!' And every shipmaster and every passenger and sailor, and as many as make their living by the sea, stood at a distance, and were crying out as they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, 'What city is like the great city?' 'And they threw dust on their heads and were crying out, weeping and mourning, saying, 'Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had ships at sea became rich by her wealth, for in one hour she has been laid waste!'

"Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you saints and apostles and prophets, because God has pronounced judgment for you against her." Then a strong angel took up a stone like a great millstone and threw it into the sea, saying, "So will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down with violence, and will not be found any longer. "And the sound of harpists and musicians and flute-players and trumpeters will not be heard in you any longer; and no craftsman of any craft will be found in you any longer; and the sound of a mill will not be heard in you any longer; and the light of a lamp will not shine in you any longer; and the voice of the bridegroom and bride will not be heard in you any longer; for your merchants were the great men of the earth, because all the nations were deceived by your sorcery. "And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints and of all who have been slain on the earth."

After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and power belong to our God; because His judgments are true and righteous; for He has judged the great harlot who was corrupting the earth with her immorality, and He has avenged the blood of His bond-servants on her."

And a second time they said, "Hallelujah! Her smoke rises up forever and ever." And the twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshiped God who sits on the throne saying, "Amen. Hallelujah!" And a voice came from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our God, all you His bond-servants, you who fear Him, the small and the great." Then I heard something like the voice of a great multitude and like the sound of many waters and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns.

"Let us rejoice and be glad and give the glory to Him, for the marriage of the Lamb has come and His bride has made herself ready. It was given to her to clothe herself in fine linen, bright and clean; for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints. Then he said to me, "Write, 'Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.'" And he said to me, "These are true words of God." Then I fell at his feet to worship him. But he said to me, "Do not do that; I am a fellow servant of yours and your brethren who hold the testimony of Jesus; worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy." (Rev. 17:1 - 19:10, NASB)

The Lord God calls upon His people to “come out of her.” Notice that it is not simply advice; it is given in the form of a command. When to come out of Babylon then becomes the question.

Chapter 2

Cycles of History

God has a way with numbers. Astrologists and certain pagan entities believe that mankind's fate hangs in the balance of patterns of numbers or that of the stars. However, God is not constrained by numbers. Rather He uses numbers in order to show His omnipotence over all things especially as they relate to the children of Israel.

One of the most momentous of things that happened to the children of Israel was falling into the Babylonian captivity around the year 587 B.C. For roughly five decades, they lived in Babylon until one momentous day. On that day which no one could have predicted, a day in which no one could have believed, on a particular day, Babylon suddenly fell.

The city of Babylon had been the jewel of the entire Middle East circumscribed by two parallel great walls and representing the historical and religious achievements of the Chaldean people. The city of Babylon and its immense wealth contained therein was surely safe from all attacks. But on one night in September or October of 539 B.C., it quickly succumbed to the military brilliance of the Persian king, Cyrus the Great.

The year 539 B.C. was an historical year of Biblical proportions. If Babylon had not fallen, the Jews could never have gone back to Israel to rebuild Jerusalem, reconstruct the Temple, and ready themselves for the coming of their Messiah. Babylon's fall in 539 B.C. ushered in the mighty Persian Empire. It was the first genuine Middle Eastern empire that stretched from the territory of modern Afghanistan to the banks of the Nile River. The Persians consolidated the fragmented kingdoms and nations of the Middle East, making the conquest of Alexander the Great that much easier a couple centuries later.

But what could this momentous year, 539 B.C., really be telling us? Such an important year might have something to say in relation to Biblical end-times events. Let it first be noted that the Babylonian fall in the year 539 B.C. happened exactly 2,555 years ago according to the Hebrew calendar. (As a note, Chabad Jews do not concur regarding the 539 B.C. date. Nonetheless, this is the date adopted by the author since it is very widely accepted.)

So, what does 2,555 years mean? Firstly, 555 is a triple repetitive set of digits which reminds one of a more famous set of triple repetitive set of digits, that of “666”. Secondly, 2,555 divided by 7 is exactly 365, the number of days in a year. Seven is God's number. The number 365 represents a cycle of time, arguably the most important pattern of all: our solar year. As such, the multiplicative statement of 365×7 may indicate a divine pattern of global history. If so, this year, the Hebrew year of 5778, may turn out to be an earth-changing year. This is not a prediction or a prophecy; it is only an educated guess, a predictive hypothesis, if you will.

Patterns of history are important. God is sovereign, and only He could bring about patterns with dates of prominence that powerfully display His will. One such year of great importance is the year that Israel officially became a nation. The year 1948 is the most important year for Israel since the birth of Christ. On May 14, 1948, Israel was beholden to no one but God; it had declared its independence.

However, since 1948, Israel has been slipping away from God even celebrating homosexuality in public displays. What has Israel done with its independence?

May 14, 1948 is the Jewish date of Iyar 5, 5708. Being that this is the year 5778, it is exactly 70 years since Israeli independence. The number 70 is one of God's supreme numbers. But because mankind's heart is more intent upon evil than ever before, it is the punishment of God that should be expected in such a critical year, not His blessings.

What have the Jews done with their independence? Have they outlawed abortion in the state of Israel? No. Innocent blood in Israel flows. Has the state of Israel outlawed homosexuality? In contrast, homosexual displays with celebratory fervor have recently become the norm in Israel. Surely the Supreme Deity who has given His chosen people the Law in the Torah is not pleased with what they have done with their independence. They have made themselves rich. They have made themselves secure. But they have not made themselves godly. Very bad things may happen this year. It is like a tree that is full of rotten fruit and one can only wait for the fruit to fall from the tree and pollute the ground.

Arguably, the most prophetically important incident which may have a bearing on the United States is the final attack on Israel by the former president of the United States, Barack Obama. In December of 2016, a vote was coming up in the United Nations which condemned Israel's building in its own capital, particularly the section of east Jerusalem.

As the story goes, Obama was playing golf in Hawaii when he made a phone call to hear updates of this U.N. vote. In the middle of his golf game, he casually chose not to veto this U.N. resolution. He directed that the United States would abstain from the U.N. vote. What he really did was that he walked away from Israel when his small ally was being bullied by the consensus of the United Nations.

The date of Obama's casual decision which momentarily interrupted his golf game was December 21, 2016. Another date, August 21, 2017, is exactly eight months following December 21, 2016. (It can be thought of a kind of minimum for a woman's pregnancy.) It is also the exact day that a solar eclipse traversed America that could be seen from the White House. (For more information on the prophetic meaning of the solar eclipse, visit the author's book, Babylon Eclipsed, available at Smashwords.com) This solar eclipse is of significant importance in that it is a very possible signal of God's displeasure with America and His coming judgment on it.

But why? Isn't Trump the new "messiah" for America? Won't Pres. Trump save America from its looming judgment? Recent history says otherwise.

The U.N. resolution that the U.S. allowed to pass in December of 2016 was not only a slap in the face to Israel, but a de-legitimization of the legality of the eternal capital city of Israel, Jerusalem. Since the adoption of this U.N. resolution against the state of Israel (U.N. resolution no. 2334) in December of 2016, Pres. Trump has done nothing significant to rescind it even though he earlier came out strongly against it, until now.

Just recently, on Dec. 6, 2017, just a few weeks after the author stated that it is a bad sign that Pres. Trump will not recognize Jerusalem of the capital of Israel, he did just that! Pres. Trump, in his historic recognition of Jerusalem as the capital of Israel, has acted to give God glory and recognition to the Jewish people. This will obviously have significant end-times application, but for now, it can be said that possibly God's judgment on America may be averted in this historic year of 5778 due to this recent decision. It is hard to believe that God might allow His judgment to fall on Babylon on the very year that the president blesses Israel with such a declaration.

The North Korean Storm

However, could America be heading into a storm that it cannot well pass through? The recent rumblings between Trump and Kim Jong Un, the leader of North Korea, may spell trouble that neither leader really understands. If America is Babylon the Great, it will someday be reduced to ashes. Surprisingly, the North Korean leader is threatening to do exactly that. Although the author does not believe that the North Korean leader will cause the Day of Destruction upon America, he may well be lighting the fuse for Babylon's future calamity.

Pres. Trump has threatened to “totally destroy” North Korea if America or its allies are significantly threatened. North Korea has nuclear capabilities and is threatening to use them.

Use them, they might. December 15th is a Noah date. It is Kislev 27th on the Hebrew calendar. It is the date that the waters reached maximum height, and all life on the planet was extinguished but for Noah and his family.

In the author's book, Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, and in several other of his writings, he points out that prophetic occurrences can often happen on dates of significance on the Jewish holy days (Feast Days) and especially on dates of Noah with respect to the timeline of events of Noah's Flood.

It has already been stated that this year, the Hebrew year of 5778, may be highlighted for prophetic importance. Pres. Trump's declaration of Jerusalem being the capital of Israel is already a part of its end-times significance. But this particular day, Dec. 15, 2017, may be very important because Kislev 27th is the day that the deluge of the Flood reached its maximum height (according to the Hebrew calendar at chabad.org).

Think about it. The rains had been falling. The judgment was already pronounced. The punishment of that judgment was proceeding with higher and higher levels of water every day until one day, Kislev 27th, on which the rains stopped. The Flood reached its maximum height. The punishment reached its maximum proportion. All of mankind was dead except for righteous Noah and his family safely tucked away inside the ark which they built for themselves in preparation for this judgment.

A question should be asked. Is Dec. 15, 2017 going to be the date in which Babylon the Great is first attacked? Is the North Korean leader, Kim Jong Un, going to initiate a militaristic move involving nuclear weapons?

Noah's Flood was a catastrophic event in which God's judgment on a very evil world left no one alive except for Noah and his family. On the Day of Destruction (D-o-D), which is graphically portrayed in Revelation chapters 17 and 18, approximately one-third of the earth becomes engulfed in flames in one hour. Babylon the Great is the main target. It will not survive that day.

The author does not believe that Dec. 15, 2017 will be the horrific D-o-D. God forbid that it should occur this soon. But this date may have prophetic importance.

Other days of possible great end-times significance for this Hebrew year of 5778 are listed below. These are Noah dates, dates on which significant events happened during Noah's Flood.

Sivan 1	May 15, 2018	Flood waters begin to subside.
Sivan 17	May 31, 2018	Bottom of the ark touches Mt. Ararat.
Av 1	July 13, 2018	Mountain peaks first become visible.
Elul 10	August 21, 2018	Noah dispatches a raven.
Elul 17	August 28, 2018	Noah sends a dove.
Elul 23	September 3, 2018	Second dove brings back an olive leaf.

Although it is not definite that a very serious confrontation (nuclear event) would occur this year and on a Noah date, it is highly likely that it would. Jesus said that the end times would be like the “days of Noah.” The author believes that recent events of end-times significance have already happened on Noah dates. A nuclear event involving North Korea would certainly be an end-times occurrence and would likely happen on a day of Noah.

Chapter 3

The North Korean Threat

In recent months since President Trump took office, the North Korean threat has grown only larger. Kim Jong Un has developed nuclear weapons with magnitudes of destruction exceeding 100 kilotons. This has been demonstrated recently in September with a magnitude 6 earthquake which was generated by a hydrogen bomb test. If the 15 kiloton atomic bomb dropped on Hiroshima, Japan was able to kill over 100,000 people, killing up to a million people each with these medium-sized hydrogen bombs is a very real possibility. Most striking of all is that he has recently threatened to detonate a hydrogen bomb in the Pacific Ocean.

If America is truly Babylon the Great, it must someday be judged and reap its Day of Destruction (D-o-D). This day will come at a time when America is still rich, feeling relatively secure, and the continual envy of the world. (See the author's book Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, available at Smashwords.com)

Although the author does not wish to believe that this year or this month could witness the D-o-D, it does remain a possibility. Let us pray and hope that more time exists and more Christians would leave Babylon the Great before their contribution to the rest of the world becomes nullified by a horrible and premature death.

The author has speculated in his mind that the importance of North Korea is not a random coincidence but rather it is a key in a series of end-times phenomena. North Korea developing nuclear weapons is not an accident. The crazy leader wishing to use them is not an accident. America foolishly sitting idle while North Korea develops nuclear weapons is not an accident. The end-times implication seems to be that North Korea might spark the eventual action which causes the D-o-D, resulting in one-third of the world becoming consumed in fire.

Whether the spark occurs immediately or several years before the D-o-D is the pertinent question at hand. It is the author's opinion that should North Korea do something ominous on Dec. 15, 2017 (or on some other date of prominence during this Hebrew year) that there will probably be several years of more time before the D-o-D. Yet, however one looks at it, time is running out, and one is foolish to speculate how long they can stay in America. One should think of how quickly he might be able to leave.

Although there are several reasons why the author believes that North Korea will not cause the ultimate D-o-D at this time, let the author now disclose his most emotionally compelling reason. God has a plan. He strongly desires to shake up the earth so that the people will remember His great name, repent of their sins and turn their hearts to His son, Jesus Christ. Putting some time between global catastrophies will allow people more time to repent and will facilitate the Christian exodus from Babylon the Great. Unfortunately, American Christians so far have not yet left America in any appreciable numbers. If this trend continues, most American Christians will die.

Could Hawaii Be the Target?

Should North Korea explode a hydrogen bomb anywhere, it might be expected to be in the vicinity of Hawaii. Kim Jong Un might try to detonate a hydrogen bomb far off the coast so that the people of Hawaii would see it, feel the shockwaves, and suffer from its radioactive fall out. The attack, however, would fall short of a direct attack on United States soil. The author believes that Kim Jong Un is not entirely crazy. But he is probably very determined to not live the rest of his life under the shadow and control of the United States. As such, he might just do such a dasdardly act. The result may well be the complete destruction of his own country.

Why does the author think that Hawaii might be a target? It is not just that it is the most important of the closest American states, it is also the place from where Obama insulted the Jewish people as well as God, Himself, by refusing to allow the Israelis to build in their own capital. Sometimes God's judgments can take on a special meaning in a unique way. Let us pray that whatever this judgment might be, it will not be too severe.

Historical Time of North Korean Grievance

Another interesting note is that December is an important month to the North Koreans. It has historical significance.

After the American forces under General MacArthur pushed the North Koreans past the 38th parallel, captured the city of Seoul, and reached the extreme northern boundary with China, something happened. In mid-December, 1950, hundreds of thousands of Chinese troops surprised the American forces, drove them back south, while slaughtering thousands of them. And, on Dec. 16, 1950, with the Chinese army firmly in control of the Korean War, Kim Il-Sung, the grand-father of the current leader, lost his command of the North Korean war effort to the Chinese.

Can it be that this insult will be remembered by Kim Jung Un in the coming day or days? Only time will tell. The fact that Dec. 15th is also a “day of Noah” should not be missed.

Will something horrific happen on December 15, 2017 or on another Noah date in 2018 vis-à-vis North Korea? The author surely does not know. These are educated speculations and hypotheses having logical merit, however. Whether anything will happen of great importance, especially with regards to North Korea, is not certain. What is certain is that if such an event should occur, the educated Christian, who believes in Biblical prophecy, who believes in the sovereignty of God, who believes he must continually love God no matter what, should wake up and start making immediate plans to leave Babylon the Great. If such an event happens, do not be fooled. God is warning you. It is time to act.

Chapter 4

Thoughts about the Day of Destruction

It should go without saying that no one in their right mind should ever look forward to 1/3 of the earth burning. There are many good people living within their respective countries that do not deserve to die, should not die, but will die.

What should a Christian do? Should a Christian ignore the warnings that America is Babylon the Great and that they should flee? The author's opinion is an emphatic NO! Christians throughout the world should understand that they are living in the end times, there is no pre-Tribulation “rapture” escape mechanism, and times are going to get tough.

Will December 15, 2017 lead to something terrible? No one knows. But if it does, there were many, many signs that have already marked it out.

Dated Evidence for the Educated Guesses

February 26, 2016

This document, notarized in Valencia City, Bukidnon province, Philippines, is meant to establish that as of the 26th of February, 2016, [REDACTED] using the pseudonym of Michael Ross, believes that:

1. America is Babylon the Great which is described in chapters 17 and 18 of the book of Revelation in the Bible.
2. America and Russia will soon be destroyed in a nuclear war.

Babylon the Great: Day of Destruction, Edition One, by Michael Ross, June 5, 2016.

Available for $3.99 from Smashwords.com.

This book will answer: Are we really living in the last generation before the Return of Christ? Is America fulfilling the prophecies about Babylon the Great? Can the Hebrew calendar provide more insight into dating possibilities for the predicted Day of Destruction?

9/11 and 9/26: Days of Judgment, Edition One is a smaller book for concentration on the date of Elul 23rd of 2016. This book was published on Sept. 25, 2016.

Babylon Eclipsed, published on Sept. 13, 2017, explains that the solar eclipse over America and the sign of Virgo in the heavens may have prophetic implications upon the judgment of Babylon the Great.

Babylon and North Korea, published on Oct. 5, 2017, hypothesized that the date of Tishei 16th could be a cause of concern, especially as it might relate to an attack on Babylon the Great, leading into the coming Day of Destruction.

This book highlights the date of Dec. 15, 2017 and explains that:

- 1. America is Babylon the Great as recorded in the book of Revelation.
- 2. God will soon punish America with the worst judgment since Noah's Flood.
- 3. December 15, 2017 has many of the signs that could suggest an ominous warning to America.

The author, Michael Ross, also lovingly called Babylon Man, has studied the prophetic Scriptures for over 30 years.

After authoring multiple international articles in the engineering sciences, he now turns his attention to something of greater importance, the coming judgment of America, with a focus on the date of Dec. 15, 2017, the Hebrew date of Kislev 27th of the year 5778, the day of Noah's Flood.
